DESIGNS FOR SIMPLE CHAMBER FURNITURE. BY J. F. SMALL, BOSTON.

The present era of simplicity is fully appreciated and well adapted by the present day designers. The designs offered above are good examples of Mr. Small's work in this field. The classical lines are carefully adhered to, and the designer depends upon the beauty of wood and simple, clearly-defined outlines for effect, rather than an ornate display of unmeaning ornament. In this case he has been particularly successful. This set would make up well in enamel white wood, bird's-eye maple, or white mahogany, natural finish.
